A HEARTY WELCOME

I TAKE GREAT PLEASURE

to extend to you a hearty welcome and a cordial invitation to attend this convention-auction sale. The committee has performed the largest task, extended diligent effort and much time to present this convention for your pleasure. You are asked to take part.

Plans are made for you to do just about anything you like. You may display your favorite series, plenty of cases. Write for reservations.

The three host clubs have arranged a full schedule of entertainment including many events. See schedule on back cover.

You will find many dealers at the bourse tables. They will bring an extensive assortment of coins for your selections. You will see most of the important active dealers of our day here.

The auction sale, one of the main features of this convention, was quite a challenge to prepare. It is very difficult to acquire good material. With much effort and solicitation, I am able to present the material listed.

You are asked to attend this sale in person, but send your bid sheet so we can mark you present. The mailing list will be revised after this sale. Unless you bid, we do not know that you are interested, that you want catalogs of my future sales.

I will look forward to the pleasure of meeting you personally. I certainly want to see my old friends and meet the great number of new collectors that became active since this organization was formed.

—S. J. K.

 1015. 1852 Brill Unc. Y $8.50
 1016. 1853 Brill Unc. Y $8.50
 1017. 1854 Proof Slightly dull, some signs of mishandling when kept with other coins. Great rarity in this condition A perfect coin would bring over $500
 1018. 1855 Brill Gem Proof Check your records ads and auction sales. You will find this coin offered less times than 1864 small motto two cents 1867 shield nickel with rays. Probably only a half dozen known. This is one of the best. Last time offered in N. Y. auction realized only $410. This could come close to selling over the value of the shield nickel record $1500 and one day will sell higher.
 1019. 1856 Brill Gem Proof The great rarity of these early specimen Proofs is not generally known Y $80. Bids in some of my sales run around three times catalog. A price of $300 will be a bargain
